TIMES.

This is the best way for you to understand the hidden meaning of the movie and see the things that you may not be able to notice, if you watch the movie once.

AS YOU ARE EXPECTED TO PRODUCE A SOLID FILM REVIEW, YOU SHOULD ALSO EXPLORE SOME ADDITIONAL SOURCES.

For example, try to find any information about how your chosen movie was created. Is it that the director of the movie used his or her personal experiences as the base for developing the movie plot? Look closer at the movie setting, the crew that was invited to work in every scene, and the movie budget.

YOU ARE READY TO WATCH
THE MOVIE FOR THE SECOND
TIME, YOU WILL KNOW
ENOUGH ABOUT THE PLOT
TO FOCUS ON DETAILS OF

DO NOT FORGET TO DEVELOP A GOOD INTRODUCTORY PASSAGE.

Tell your reader who the director of the movie is, when the movie was created and presented to the audience, what initial reaction it stirred in the public, and why the author decided to create the film of that kind.

NOW SWITCH TO WRITING THE BODY PARAGRAPHS.

Perform a thorough analysis of the movie's story plot. Analyze how well the actors have coped with their professional tasks.

Is the movie realistic? Use evidence from the movie, when writing a film review.

The background is a solid yellow color. There are two large teal circles: one on the left side and one on the bottom right. Scattered across the yellow background are several black-outlined triangles of various sizes and orientations. The main text is centered in the upper half of the page.

Tell your reader what you feel about the movie. Provide recommendations for your audience. Because your opinion matters, try to choose a movie that touches your heart and stirs your mind.
