

Admission Essay

It is a real pleasure to be admitted at Bates College. This educational establishment has high reputation because of its dedication to emancipate potential of liberal arts. Arts and science play a very important role in our day-to-day life. To some people, art is extremely essential while to others it is valueless. This discipline is described broadly than most individuals realize. It is an apparent truth that arts make people happy, and that happiness is among the most significant factors in life. The college also offers Bachelor of Science degree in several subjects.

Most of the people, who have talents and embrace arts, may not really use their potential due to lack of support and training. There is a need to emancipate the potential of the liberal arts. The Bates College deserves credit for its dedication for encouraging and emancipating the pointed above potential. The college shades light to the potential artists and nurturing talents, and gives opportunity to students who want to study science and economics. Everyone who wants to join art industry feels inspired to join Bates College because of its efforts to empower arts and science.

The college is admired by many because of its academic excellence and commitment to nature diverse talents. I have a strong feeling that only Bates College can help me to excel in my area of interest. It has been ranked among the top arts colleges in the US for the last 20 years. One of the reasons why this epicenter of knowledge is academically excellent is because of its conducive, learning environment and devoted qualified educators. I am confident that I will fit the college system of my dedication and fulfillment to attain my dream in the sphere of chosen specialization come true.

I intend to study science and economics, and I believe that Bates College is the best for me because of its academic achievements. Many students, who have gone through Bates College education system, have succeeded in different areas of specialization ranging from arts to various science fields. This powerful source of youth's education has the high reputation in terms of academic and that is why students, who graduated here, have great opportunities in a job market.

The dedication of Bates College to educate individuals through creative and precise scholarship in a joint residential community – is an inexhaustible inspiration that draws me to join this college. Art is all about creativity and, therefore, students should be educated in a creative way. Liberal arts teaching provide an individual with the instruments necessary to reflect for oneself, and the facts that require understanding and appreciating many subtle aspects of the multifaceted world. It lays a foundation for persons to realize their ability, and prepare to get their place in this dynamic world. The liberal arts education also provides one with self-determination to become the finest person one can probably be.